Overview: The concept of Lynfred Winery came from “two crazy people”. It was entirely a creation of the love and ingenuity of Fred Koehler and his late wife Lynn. Between Lynn’s ideas and Fred’s practicality, they created one of the most unique attractions- not to mention gourmet tastes-in the country today.

Accommodations: In a smoke-free environment, Lynfred Winery Bed & Breakfast offers four luxurious, European style suites fashioned to represent American, French, German and Italian wine countries. Each suite is meticulously decorated to properly represent the country, through architecture, fabrics, tile and furnishings.

American Suite: Inspired by turn of the century American vineyards, the deluxe American suite features Stickley furniture from the original Arts & Crafts movement. An appropriate theme of grapes and vines makes this suite approachable and relaxing as the American Midwest. The wine colored whirlpool rests in classic, breathtaking tile work in the same handmade patterns of the turn of the century tile makers in Illinois.

French suite: A rhapsody of whimsical romance and enchantment are omnipresent in the French wine country décor. From the hand carved garlands of roses to the French blue limestone on the hearth and wine bar we are treated to the best of the French countryside. Pattern on pattern fabrics and needlepoint carpets showcase the period style French furniture. Crystal and bronze chandeliers glitter throughout the suite. Shades of blue marbleized tile, enhanced with gold leaf, accent a tromp l’oeil painting of a Provence vineyard by artist Charles Nitti, while cherubs watch over the rain shower.

German suite: The cozy German suite represents an idea of comfort or Gemütlichkeit in the wooden houses of Bavaria. The suite, furnished in Biedermeier furniture uses auras of green (common to the green bottles of Riesling wine). Rustic oak paneling and acorn carving has been used to enhance the authentic feeling. Deep green marble adorns the wine bar and fireplace. A highlight of the room is a pair of hand-forged sconces featuring acorns and the famous Black Forest bears. The bath, tiled in Villeroy and Bosch tiles includes a one of a kind trompe l’oeil window by artist Charles Nitti. In a niche near the spa tub is another surprise, a mother Black Forest bear with her cubs is a charming if somewhat kitschy, towel holder.

Italian Suite: A walk in the Italian countryside would describe the experience of this shell themed Italian Suite. Soft colors are reflected in the heated stone tile floors and the country Italian furnishings. The grand living area features a carved rose marble fireplace and antique Murano glass sconces. The bedroom features Venetian style furniture and a romantic print of cupids, taken from the Medici archives in Florence. Walking into the magnificent spa bathroom is a step back into the time of the Caesars. The antique Jerusalem stone mosaic floor and tumbled Italian marble walls is a beautiful backdrop for the columned Roman bath. A niche in the bath features a marble reproduction of Botticelli’s Venus. Venetian silver chandeliers and lantern complete the ambience.
